WHY ME?

I'm a young, ambitious, motivated, sociable and active man with a plan to change his life for better.

This isn't not my first job actually. I'm a seaman and as an Officer my job was planning, decision making, team leading and huge responsibility for people and property. However I would like have more logical and intellectual work. What can be better than a job you're in love with?!

I may not be the best qualified, but I am the person you'd most like to meet.
